Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 23 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with some patchy rain on Thursday.

Today:
Cloudy with some patchy light rain, although rain will be more persistent across Argyll especially later. Fresh occasionally strong westerly winds easing by early afternoon. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
It will become drier with some clear spells through the evening, Argyll perhaps holding on to some cloud later. Fresh winds continuing and further light and patchy rain by dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Cloudy with some patchy rain at first on Friday, this confined to Ayrshire later, otherwise dry and bright, a few sunny spell possible too with winds easing. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Occasional rain and strong winds over the weekend but some dry and brighter interludes too. A wet night on Sunday and into Monday morning but clearing to showers later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.